

Trouble at work?

Together we stand strong!

We are a group of workers which supports each other in case of conflicts on the work floor. On your own you won't get that far in the struggle against your boss, but together we are stronger. That is why we are building a network. Our goal is to win, so we use intensifying actions. With each victory we become stronger. Everyone can contribute to this, whether you have a lot or just a little bit of time. Join us!

Do you have trouble at work? Let us know, hopefully we can help each other.
